

Tlaquepaque turns PURPLE with award-winning author

Celebrate Spring at a Purple Party from 1pm to 3pm Saturday, April 17, at Storyteller Bookstore, Tlaquepaque B105.

Susan Faith, author and inspirational speaker, will be signing her award-winning book, "Purple Love." This is a wonderful opportunity to receive personalized, signed copies of "Purple Love" in time for Mother's and Father's Day.

Meet "the purple puppy, "mascot for Faith's new release, "Purple Puppy", to be published in July. Have the opportunity to order your copies now at pre-publication prices. Excitement for "Purple Puppy" is growing. B. Skielvig, Director of the Humane Society of Sedona says, "I would recommend the book to anyone with a young child. "Purple Puppy" teaches a child to understand why parents look out for us and why we must look out for our animal friends."

There will be lots of giveaways and a free raffle for a limited edition plush "Purple Love" bunny. Be one of the first to own an "I'm a Purple Person" t-shirt. Gather the kids, grandparents and all your friends and come find out what a "purple person" is!

"Purple Love" is the recipient of the 2003 GLYPH Award for Best Children's Book and the 2003 GLYPH Award for Best Inspirational, Spiritual Book. Susan Faith also received the 2003 Literary Contest Award for Published Children's Literature, 3rd Prize.

"Purple Love" is a warm, inspiring story about life, death and the power of love. Beautifully illustrated by the Japanese artist Goro Sasaki in a picture book format, "Purple Love" is truly a story for both children and adults.

"Purple Love is a sweet story that teaches an important lesson . . .and, a love for all of life's wonderful creations." Jack Canfield, Co-author, "Chicken Soup for the Soul" series. "Susan Faith has created a book of beauty, inspiration and a message of respect for all God's creatures. "Purple Love" is a great treasure. Buy several and keep these books on hand for use as gifts during the year. You will delight both children and their parents." Dottie Walters, Publisher/Editor: Sharing Ideas Magazine.

Part of the proceeds of "Purple Love" is donated to charities to benefit children, animals and the environment. Local charities include the Sedona schools, JCS, Adult Community Center, Canyon Moon Theatre, VVALD, AZ Community Foundation, KSB, Make A Wish Foundation, the Boys & Girls Club and the Sedona and Cottonwood Humane Societies.

To reserve your copy or for more information call The Storyteller at 282-2144 or Purple People Publishing at 204-6400.