Tempe Festival of the Arts will feature Sedona Author Susan Faith

Local award-winning author Susan Faith was chosen to appear at the Tempe Festival of the Arts on Sunday, December 5, 2004 between 1-2 pm on the main stage. Ms. Faith will be entertaining the children and young-at-heart with her own rendition of a game show version of "Kids say the Most Amazing Things," with a group of fun and fact-filled questions about animal care. Immediately following, Susan Faith will be autographing copies of her books, "Purple Puppy," and "Purple Love."

Throughout the Tempe Festival of the Arts, December 3-5, you may also meet Susan Faith on BOOK STREET™ between 5th and 6th Streets east of Mill Avenue. Just look for the tables covered in purple with all purple products!

Between December 3 and December 5, Mill Avenue closes for the Tempe Festival of the Arts and the streets are lined with more than 500 artisan booths. In addition to Ms. Faith's presentation, stage time will also feature live music.
