The Purple Puppy Goes Uptown

Come celebrate Summer at a Purple Party, being held in Uptown Sedona at The Naja on Saturday, June 18th from 11AM-1PM. Susan Faith, Author and Inspirational Speaker, will be signing her award-winning books, "Purple Puppy" and "Purple Love." This is a wonderful opportunity to receive your personalized, signed copies in time for Father's Day.

As a special treat, THE Purple Puppy will accompany Ms. Faith and be available to kiss you, give you a pawshake and paw-tograph your book. Each attendee wearing purple will receive a special gift from Susan Faith and everyone will have time to meet, pet, and be kissed by THE Purple Puppy.

There will be lots of free give-aways and cookies for the young and the young at heart. Gather the kids, grandparents and all your friends and come find out what a "purple person" is!

"Purple Puppy" has just received the 2005 Glyph Award for Best Inspirational Book. "We are especially pleased that "Purple Puppy" won this award because its publication has helped us to make considerable contributions to charities that benefit animals, children and the environment", states Tami Pivnick, VP of Production. "We are also doing national events for pet adoptions and have been involved with over 125 pet adoptions this year." Local charities include the Sedona schools, JCS, Adult Community Center, Canyon Moon Theatre, VVALD, AZ Community Foundation, KSB, Make A Wish Foundation, the Boys & Girls Club and the Sedona and Cottonwood Humane Societies.

"Purple Puppy" is the second book by author Susan Faith to win GLYPH Awards. In 2003 Purple People Inc. won GLYPH Awards for Best Children's Book and Best Inspirational/Spiritual Book for her first book, "Purple Love." In 2003 Ms. Faith also won the Arizona Literary Award for Children's Literature, 3rd place.
